- Use Chinese music to create stories together

Brief Descriptions:

Every Lunar New Year, every household will buy New Year goods, including New Year flowers, decorations and other New Year items. Children are interested in understanding the items sold and the operation of the New Year's Eve market, so they use "New Year's Eve Market" as the theme to simulate the production of New Year's Eve market stalls through sharing, exploration and artistic creation, enriching children's imagination and cultivating children's appreciation of Chinese art. culture.
