

Kindergarten Education Scheme

School-based Learning Activities in Chinese Culture

Display report

Name of school: Po Leung Kuk Fiona Cheung Sum Yu Kindergarten

School year: 2023-2024

Grade: K1

Activity name

Four Treasures of Study

Activity aim

- Be able to gain a preliminary understanding of the Four Treasures of the Study in Chinese culture through practical experience and observation
- Be able to participate in activities such as paper making, pen making, ink grinding and ink stone using
- Be able to carefully observe the materials and production processes of the Four Treasures of the Study
- Be able to communicate and share observations and experiences during activities

Activity summary

During the activity, children explored the Four Treasures of the Study in Chinese culture. The historical background of these tools is introduced through stories and pictures, allowing children to understand their importance in ancient and modern art creation. Then children participated in the process of making paper, making pens, grinding ink and using ink stones. Through observation and practice, children can not only recognize the craftsmanship of these tools, but also feel the profound heritage and art of Chinese culture.

Activity record

Kindergarten Education Scheme

School-based learning activities in Chinese Culture

Activity report

Name of school: Po Leung Kuk Fiona Cheung Sum Yu Kindergarten

School year: 2023-2024

Grade: K2

Activity name

Enjoy the art of calligraphy

Activity aim

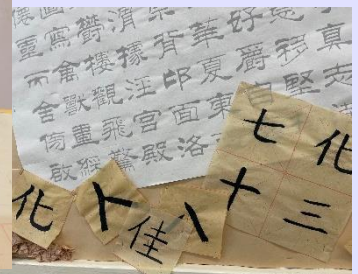

- Understand calligraphy brush and rice paper
- Be able to hold the calligraphy brush correctly
- Be able to cultivate children's interest and love for traditional Chinese calligraphy art

Activity summary

The teacher first introduced the structure and characteristics of the brush to children with teaching the correct way to hold the brush, and introduced the texture and uses of various rice papers. Then the teacher guided the children to imitate the teacher's demonstration and practice strokes.

After completion, the teacher gradually guided children to write, and at the same time encouraged the children to use their creativity to design personalized calligraphy works. Finally, the artwork made by children will be presented.

Activity record

Kindergarten Education Scheme

School-based Learning Activities in Chinese Culture

Display report

Name of school: Po Leung Kuk Fiona Cheung Sum Yu Kindergarten

School year: 2023-2024

Grade: K3

Activity name

Blue and white porcelain

Activity aim

- Be able to appreciate works about Chinese culture
- Be able to learn the skills of painting blue and white porcelain
- Be able to develop interest in Chinese culture

Activity summary

At the beginning of the activity, teacher introduced the history and characteristics of blue and white porcelain to children, and let them understand that blue and white porcelain is a traditional ceramic originating from China and is famous for its unique style of blue patterns on a white background. Then children began to draw on paper imitating the style of blue and white porcelain. Teacher guided them on how to draw typical blue and white porcelain patterns, such as flowers, animals or traditional patterns. During the process, children used their imagination and artistic talents to depict the unique patterns and decorations of blue and white porcelain. Through this activity, children not only learn painting skills, but also develop their interest and understanding of traditional Chinese culture. At the same time, they felt the joy and sense of accomplishment in artistic creation by personally experiencing the process of blue and white porcelain painting.

Activity record

