Objective(s)

- Learn about traditional Chinese festivals – Lunar New Year
- Through a face-changing performance, children will understand the historical background and cultural significance of face-changing
- Enhance their understanding of traditional Chinese arts

Brief Descriptions

Lunar New Year is one of the four major traditional festivals of the Han Chinese, and its celebrations are commonly known as "Guo Nian" (passing the year). To celebrate Lunar New Year, our kindergarten participated in the "Chinese Culture Day" organized by Po Leung Kuk Riverain Primary School. Through watching a face-changing performance and participating in booth games, we learned about Lunar New Year customs, including writing Spring Festival couplets and traditional games.
