23-24 School-based learning activities of Chinese culture

Writing brush

To foster children's and parents' interests and understandings on Chinese cultures, we set up a Chinese-culture activity wall.

"Hundred Family Surnames" are posted on the wall. With the illustrations given by our teachers, children can find their surnames on it and understand the origin of their surnames.

Writing brushes are provided for children to get to know the Chinese traditional writing tools. Children can try to write by using writing brush with correct writing posture.
